General News

Needed Confirmation Instructor—HIAC

HIAC is looking for a person or team to teach this years Confirmation program. Program provided. This is an important ministry helping prepare our youth to make their confirmation of faith. If you are interested or have questions please contact Rev Byron.

New Ministry

Both HIAC and SNAC are seeking those who may be interested in assisting with ministry roles in our parishes. If you have an interest in learning more about becoming a Eucharistic Assistant (helping distribute the bread and wine) or becoming a Lay reader (assisting with worship and other ministries) or if you'd simply like to chat about these roles, please contact Rev. Byron or Rev. Tracy to learn more.

As we walk through each new day, facing whatever life throws at us, may this thought be in our hearts, that the very One who died for us, and who was raised to life for us, is the presence of God with us, supporting, protecting, guiding us through the peaks and troughs of each day, and absolutely nothing can separate us from that love, God's gift to all who walk with,
and serve him daily in this world, through his Son, Jesus Christ, our Lord.

@John Birch, faithandworship.com

Your Spirit leads us along faith's journey and we are happy to follow this, your path, at a comfortable pace.
But now and then, Lord, your Spirit dances,
and though it is for joy we find it difficult keeping to the rhythm and stumble as we try.
It's lack of practice, Lord, so please, teach us to dance, that worship might become as natural as walking in our journeying with you.
